

An abstract painting with a textured surface. The colors are primarily green, yellow, and blue, with some white and light blue accents. The brushstrokes are visible, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall composition is non-representational and expressive.

I am Eriada Tarifa, a pupil at 8 year of elementary school "Jorgji Dilo". I have joined the ECE Foundation when I was at 6 year of elementary school. I joined the foundation after my brother Adriano Tafani left it, when he was at the 9'th year of elementary school. I was very glad when I joined the Foundation because despite, economic aid the teachers there helped me with the school .They have done the same thing with my brother.
